elected Throughout Except For Filling One Vacancy Occurring.

In a brief caucus lasting about 35 minutes and attended by about 40 republicans in the town hall on Wednesday evening, the delegates of that party to the state convention at Hartford on June 25 and 26 and to the congressional and county conventions were elected, and the town committee was re-elected.

Town Committee Chairman Henry H. Pettis called the caucus to order and Herbert M. Leary was elected chairman, with Harry L. Peterson as clerk.

The delegates were elected as follows: State—Albert J. Bailey, Joseph H.
Henderson, Arthur C. Brown, Will L.
Stearns, J. M. Murray, Fourth district—Charles J. Adams, Fifth district—George J. Adams, Sixth district—Charles J. Adams.

No delegates to probate and senatorial conventions such as had been elected at the democratic caucus on Tuesday evening were elected at the republican caucus. Inquiry from the town committee chairman elicited the information that these were to be elected in the fall and that it was a mistake for the democratic caucus to elect delegates.

The following were the town commit-
